

Why Study Maths?

This portable drilling rig is 110m long and 40m tall, and the cruise ship next to it is a floating city, accommodating 4,180 passengers.

Both of these mega-structures operate in some of the world's harshest environments.

Studying Maths is the ultimate pathway to a career in Maritime Engineering that can take you around the world.

Study maths and shape your future

> amc.edu.au/whystudymaths